

SOCDS Holiday Plan 2022/2023

If you have any questions or concerns about a planned activity please speak with Ms. Annemarie. If your child has any dietary or other restrictions please let us know immediately.

Holiday	Date	Objective	Activity
Hispanic Heritage Month	September 15 th through October 15 th	To celebrate the influence of Hispanic Culture and experience in America.	Stories / Map Discussion, and Food
Rosh Hashanah	Sunday, September 25 th	To celebrate the Jewish New Year with a wish for a sweet and good year. (apples and honey)	Book / Discussion
Islamic New Year	Friday, July 29 th .	To celebrate the Islamic New Year with a reflection for those who were oppressed.	Book / Discussion
Yom Kippur	Tuesday, October 4 th	To reflect on making good choices for the new year.	Book / Discussion
Johnny Appleseed Day	Mon., September 26 th	To celebrate the beginning of the school year with apple crafts. This is a school wide event as a circuit with parent support.	Circuit of activities
Columbus Day / Indigenous Peoples Day	Monday, October 10 th	To acknowledge the adventure of searching for new lands. We avoid the word “Discover” and introduce the word adventure and search for the new/different. We also discuss the term indigenous to avoid the discussion of “finding America” or labeling.	Book / Discussion
Fire Prevention Week	Monday, October 9 th	To understand the importance of following fire drills and staying safe.	Exercise
World Food Day	Sunday, October 16 th	To acknowledge the need for food in our community. Food drive this week.	Food Drive
Diwali	Mon., October 24 th	To celebrate the Hindu New Year and wish for a year filled with light.	Book Discussion
Veteran’s Day	Sat., November 11 th	To celebrate our country and the people that serve in the military. We do not discuss war; we discuss the protectors.	Book / Discussion
America Recycles	Tues., November 15 th	To practice recycling and emphasize “reduce” as a choice. This is a school wide event as a circuit.	Circuit learning how to sort items
Shared Feast	Tuesday, November 22 nd	To enjoy a meal together. This is a school wide event.	Sharing a meal together

SOCDS Holiday Plan 2022/2023

If you have any questions or concerns about a planned activity please speak with Ms. Annemarie. If your child has any dietary or other restrictions please let us know immediately.

Holiday	Date	Objective	Activity
Thanksgiving (School closed Thurs. & Fri)	Thursday, November 24 th	To acknowledge the interdependence between people that look and live differently	Books / Crafts
Hanukkah	Sunday, December 18 th	To introduce children to the festival of lights and the tradition of the dreidel game.	Book / Craft
Christmas	Sunday, December 25 th	To introduce children to the decorations used in this celebration.	Book / Craft
Kwanzaa	Mon., December 26 th	To introduce children to the seven principals.	Book / Craft
Martin Luther King Jr. Birthday	Week of Monday, January 17 th	To celebrate the achievement of MLK using non-violence to achieve action. Using his words instead of his hands.	Week of celebration of MLK and subsequent Black American accomplishments
Lunar New Year	Sun., January 22 nd	To celebrate the Chinese New Year for the arrival of spring with good wishes for happiness. Illustrate the strength and goodness of the dragon for the new year.	Book / Craft
Groundhog Day	Thurs., February 2 nd	To discuss the calendar item of Groundhog Day and await spring.	Discussion
100 Days of School	Wed, February 8th Depending on weather closings	To culminate the kindergarten class count-down to 100. Following the ZERO the HERO curriculum.	Kindergarten Count Down
Valentines' Day	Tuesday, Feb. 14th	To acknowledge a special friend with good wishes. All cards made in class.	Share one Valentine with an assigned classroom friend
President's Day	Monday, February 20 th	To celebrate patriotism across America.	Book / Discussion
Read Across America	Thurs., March 2nd	To practice reading with a critical eye. Learning how to question what you read and see, and don't read and see.	School Wide Read In
Purim	Mon., March 6 th	Joyous and fun holiday celebrating life.	Book/craft

SOCDS Holiday Plan 2022/2023

If you have any questions or concerns about a planned activity please speak with Ms. Annemarie. If your child has any dietary or other restrictions please let us know immediately.

Holiday	Date	Objective	Activity
Holi	Wed., March 8 th	To celebrate Spring and festival of colors. Victory of good over bad.	Book / Color craft
Autism Awareness	Sunday, April 2 nd	Everyone getting what they need, when they need it, so they can feel valued, respected and loved.	Book/Discussion
Passover	Wed., April 5 th	To introduce children to the celebration of being freed and the need to alter diets to circumstances. (why can't he/she have pizza?)	Book / Discussion
Easter	Sunday, April 9 th	To introduce children to the celebration of spring.	Book / Discussion
Earth Day	Sat., April 22 nd	To celebrate the importance of caring for our Earth.	School Planting
Arbor Day	Fri. April 28 th	To celebrate the joy of trees.	School plantings
Cinco De Mayo	Friday, May 5 th	To acknowledge the victory of the outnumbered Mexican Army defeating the French imperial invaders in the Town of Puebla, Mexico in 1862.	Explore a map of Mexico and France
Mother's Day	Sunday, May 14 th	To acknowledge that Mother's Day is celebrated to honor anyone who loves and cares for you.	Books and Crafts
Memorial Day	Monday, May 29 th	To acknowledge that people have died to make our country what it is today.	Book
Art Show	Friday, June 2 nd	To showcase the work of students during the year.	Showcase
Last Day of School	Friday, June 16 th	Half day
Juneteenth	Friday, June 16 th	National Independence Day acknowledging the freedom of enslaved persons.
Father's Day	Sunday, June 18 th	To acknowledge that Father's Day is celebrated to honor anyone who is important in your life.	Books and crafts